

Over 80 delegates attend Family Law Seminar delivered by Nick Stonor QC and Charlotte Worsley

Thank you to everyone who attended the Family Law Seminar at Aspire last night.

Over 80 delegates attended.

The seminar was delivered by Head of Family Team, Charlotte Worsley and PSQB door tenant Nick Stonor QC.

The title of the seminar was “When Cultures collide – when if ever, should the State intervene”

Topics that were covered were physical chastisement, FGM, male circumcision, forced marriage, adoption, religious rituals, transgender, radicalisation and aspects of Sharia Law.

The event was free to attend and attracted 1 CPD hour.

For further details about our Family Team seminars or any seminar held by Park Square Barristers please visit the seminar schedule on our website.

For further information or to book Nick Stonor QC or Charlotte Worsley, please contact:

Claudine Cooper on 0113 202 8604

Paul Foster on 0113 213 5209

