

PSQB to recruit a Practice Development Clerk

Park Square Barristers is advertising to recruit a Practice Development Clerk

The role of the Practice Development Clerk will be to continue business growth at PSQB.

We are looking for someone with experience and a proven track record of business development and procurement.

The candidate will have a strong understanding of our product and a strong ability to sell it.

We are looking for a driven, enthusiastic and proactive individual with excellent organisational skills to work alongside our existing clerking team.

For further details and for information how to apply please see: <https://www.reed.co.uk/jobs/rsr/37011687>