

Polo Club Owner Jailed for Sex Offences – Caroline Wigin and Laura Nelson Prosecute

Following a 4 week trial at Sheffield Crown Court, Caroline Wigin leading Laura Nelson secured the conviction of Paul Piddington for a string of sexual offences. The defendant was jailed for 11 and a half years after the jury convicted him of three counts of sexual assault; one count of rape; one count of indecent assault and one count of exposure. He was cleared of three further charges of sexual assault.

Click here for media coverage of the case.

Caroline Wigin is a senior member of our Criminal Team and has over 30 years' experience at the Bar.

Laura Nelson was called to the Bar in 2016 and being led in a case of this type has given her immeasurable experience as she starts to undertake more work in the Crown court.

Contact Caroline & Laura's clerks

Andrew Thornton on 0113 213 5202

Gina Hawkins on 0113 213 5205

Rebecca Wilson on 0113 213 5203

Hannah Dempsey on 0113 213 5211

Elaine Foster-Morgan on 0113 213 5217

