

Another successful Inquest Seminar delivered by Tom Gent & Caroline Wood

Thank you to all those who attended last night's seminar on Inquests involving Health & Safety and Industrial disease.

The event was held in the historic Oak Room at Quebecs, Leeds.

Tom Gent and Caroline Wood spoke on:

Inquests in cases where the HSE is an "interested person"

- The requirement for a jury and its composition
- Controlling disclosure
- "Scope" and how to influence it
- Preparation for a narrative conclusion

Industrial disease inquest:

- What is an "industrial disease" and the obligation to report the death to the Coroner
- Obtaining a post – mortem and retention of tissue samples
- Recovering Costs

The next in our series of seminars on Inquests is on Thursday the 18th of July when Kirsten Mercer and Kate Wilson will be speaking on Article 2 Inquests.

Our series of Inquest seminars are proving to be very popular please book early to avoid disappointment.
